TouchSystems' P20 Series brings both a robust display and a concern for the environment to its monitors. The monitors offer a sensitive touch, rich colors, and Rapid Response video technology. They also are equipped with a light sensor that responds to changing lighting conditions, thus conserving energy.

Corporate

The P20 monitors increase efficiency and productivity while ensuring maximum comfort to end users through the ergonomic design.

Medical

The monitors provide an interactive solution to medical applications, allowing for a better patient experience.

Finance

The P20 21" delivers real-time information from the bank lobby to the trading room floor via its Rapid Response technology.

Restaurant

The P20 Series allows for more effective operations and can simplify the seating arrangement and billing processes.
